New edition of an old and well known motto-It is better to be black than to be President.

THE Springfield Journal contradicts in toto the story told by "North West Ark.," on Col. M. LARUE HARRISON The Indian story is said to be plagiarized from a book called "Loyalty on the Frontier."

Dispatches state that President Johnson has expressed a determination that the laws passed by the Tennessee Legislature shall be obeyed, and that all illegal voters in the approaching election shall be kept from the polls.

Colman's Rural World.

We are in receipt of this new Agricultural and Horticultural Journal-a successor to the old Valley Farmer, so well known throughout the west. It is printed in neat style, and each number contains matters of the highest importance and give besides any variety of news.

But, is not all working well? Has from every farmer in the west. It is published in quarto form, at St. Louis, Mo., on the 1st and 15th of each month by the old Editor of the Valley Farmer, NORMAN J. COLMAN, Esq. at $2 per annum, to whom subscriptions should be sent. The Journal will be sent from the first of July to the first of January for $1. We think our readers will find ment, precisely those steps which are it to their interest to subscribe for it.
